Business Terms and Conditions

This list cancels all previous quotations, and the terms and conditions shown will carry in all Bulletins for fall, 1927.

The prices printed in this list are based upon present market conditions, and are for immediate acceptance, subject to change without notice and stock being unsold. All goods are offered f. o. b. West Grove, and boxing is charged at cost. We sell 250 or more at the 1,000 rate, and 25 or more at the 100 rate.

Orders are booked with the understanding that they shall become void should injury befall the stock from flood, error in count, drought, fire, or other causes beyond our control.

Shipments travel at purchaser's risk, and in the absence of definite instructions from the buyer, stock will be forwarded according to our best judgment without assuming responsibility.

Claims, if any, must be made immediately on receipt of goods.

Terms cash, except to those with established credit, who may make special arrangements for payment.

We endeavor to keep varieties true to name and will replace, on proper proof, any not true; but we do not guarantee the success of the grower. In event of untrue stock, our liability must be limited to invoice value at time of shipment.

Copy of Pennsylvania State Certificate of Inspection on all orders.

We invite correspondence from prospective buyers, but ask that all communications be written on printed business stationery so that we can grant trade prices only to those individuals or firms actually entitled to receive them.

The plant names used in this list conform, for the most part, with "Standardized Plant Names," adopted by The American Joint Committee on Horticultural Nomenclature.

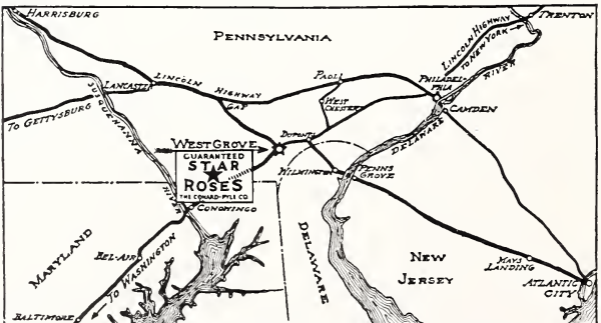

Members American Association of Nurserymen, Eastern Nurserymen's Association, Pennsylvania Nurserymen's Association, etc.

FALL, 1927

A Handy Guide to Handsome Profits

First, in addition to the usual items, you will discover offers of a score or more Novelties, that is, new, improved, out-of-the-ordinary varieties. Second, you will see many offerings of distinctly well-rooted Lining-out Stock from 2¼-inch pots. Third, your attention is invited to the fact that the Shrubbery, on the pages which follow, is designated as "Oak Brand" because the Oak Tree is the only symbol, it is believed, that can truly mark this sturdier, better-rooted, specimen-like material. Fourth, you can buy in full confidence that you will get plants of the very best quality, because this firm has been engaged for thirty (30) full years in producing nursery stock. Furthermore, during the greater part of this period, production was under the personal direction of that noted plantsman, the late Antoine Wintzer.

Considering everything, then, will it not pay you to study this list carefully and place at least a part of your orders here?

Virginal, "the most popular NEW Philadelphus" (2½ to 3 ft. size)

Novelties Stimulate Trade

Did you ever stop to think that the great majority of your customers are women, and have you ever noticed how interested they are in something new? They are apt to trade where they can get the latest in plants, too, so perhaps you will have a better chance of holding their patronage if you keep your list constantly improved by now and then adding a few novelties. For example, a new shrub shown on the cover of your catalog, or in some other prominent location, will instantly attract them. Doesn't it seem, then, that by handling novelties, even in moderate quantities, you have a splendid chance to improve your catalog, to increase your sales, to keep good-customers-with-money-to-spend, to win more trade, and to get greater turn-over?

You are offered a wide selection of novelties on the pages which follow, and each variety, for your convenience, is marked with a large dot (●). Decide now which varieties you will add to your list, and order stock of them at once.

What new stuff are you going to offer this season?

Outstanding Evergreens

Headed by our famous well-rooted Lining-Out Stock from 2¼-inch pots, of which the Propagator says:

Look at the "business-end" of this husky young Arborvitæ! Photographed Aug. 10, 1927—two months yet to root!

"In a time when so much secondary stock is being put on the market by inexperienced growers, it is more than ever important to know your source of supply.

"After producing nursery stock of the very best quality for thirty years (nearly a third of a century), and after several seasons' pioneering with the method, now approved generally, of growing Lining-Out Evergreens in pots, we feel in position to furnish outstandingly better-rooted young plants, more certain to give solid, thrifty rows.

"You may be familiar with pot-grown stuff, but perhaps you are not aware that these particular plants are propagated with greater care than the average, and that ample time is allowed for full root-development. When set to your fields, the balls, which are well-preserved, protect the roots until they "catch." Thus you have a wonderful opportunity to get complete stands and a perfect return on your investment.

"Really, you run no risk. The list of those who order and contract yearly is steadily increasing. You might as well get your share of the profits."

Decide to order now and have your plants set aside for Spring delivery. Make your selections from the following pages.

Balling and Burlapping: 5 cts. each for plants measuring up to and including 1 ft.; 10 cts. each for those up to and including 2 ft.; and 15 cts. each for all larger than these. Examples: 6 to 8 in., 8 to 12 in., etc., at 5 cts.; 1 to 1½ ft., 1½ to 2 ft., etc., at 10 cts.; 2 to 2½ ft., 3 to 4 ft., etc., at 15 cts.

ROSES, continued

Rosa Hugonis "Surprisingly better than any you can buy elsewhere"

Hugonis

"Golden Rose of China"

Three things, perhaps, have lifted Hugonis to the popular place it holds today with both retail and wholesale trade: its beauty, its dependability, and its usefulness.

Yellow has always been a favorite color with Rose-lovers, and this shrub-like variety not only presents clear yellow blooms like great golden hollyhocks, but it flowers exceptionally early, even in April or early May. The bush itself is an attention-getter, for when matured it is symmetrically handsome, and about 6 feet wide with corresponding height. The reddish maroon canes are in themselves most attractive, and the small acacia-like foliage turns purple in the fall.

Hugonis has proved remarkably hardy, even in extreme below-zero temperatures. It is, therefore, dependable, and will be found most useful for specimens or grouped in plantings of shrubbery. It also serves admirably for a fine flowering hedge.

For more than ten years the trade has looked this way for the greater part of its Hugonis, and it is a pleasure to announce that this season also finds us fully equipped to take care of the largest orders and the most exacting requirements. The quality of the plants surprises most buyers, and the price, for the present, is lower than ever before in our history. You will do well to order here, and we fully believe you will be entirely satisfied.

Prices for dormant own-root plants, ready after November 1
